HiKOKI Gasless Nailers deliver more power and freedom.

HiKOKI's renowned Gasless Nailer technology provides unprecedented power and low running costs across a wide range of timber nailing applications. It's equipped with HiKOKI's unique Air Spring Drive System that delivers similar performance as a pneumatic nailer, but offers total cordless freedom. It uses sealed compressed air to drive each nail, which results in zero ramp up time, and drives up to 2 nails driven per second, recoil that feels like a pneumatic nailer and best of all, there is no refilling of the air tank required. The HiKOKI cordless nailer is ideal for all construction framing applications but is particularly useful for punch-out work on a jobsite for quick in-and-out operation with minimal hassle and professional results. Discover our range to see why more trades professionals are turning to HiKOKI high performance power tools to get the job done faster and easier.
